STATEMENT

(In the space below, please provide the showing of unavoidable delay recited in paragraph 8 above.)

Per 2590 Acceptance of Delayed Payment of Maintenance Fee in Expired Patent to Reinstated Patent [R-7] 2500 Maintenance Fees.

1. Unavoidable Delay - showing delay was unavoidable since reasonable care was taken to ensure that the maintenance fee would be paid timely and the petition was filed promptly after made aware.

On Sept 9, 2010 - I mailed in the maintenance fee for Patent # 6,450,864. I mailed this to the address supplied by our lawyer for the prior payment due at USPTO, PO Box 371611, Pittsburgh, PA. The payment was due on Sept 17, 2010. On Sept 21, 2010, we received the mail back "Returned to Sender, no longer at this address." I called the Patent Office and was informed of the Maintenance fees and forms to reinstate the Patent in order of rule 2590. We had made a reasonable care to ensure payment would be received in a timely manner, however we were not informed of the change of address causing this unavoidable delay. Please accept this and reinstate Patent # 6,450,864.

(Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed)
